TO HELP BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Equal Taxers Will Join in Move Against Franchise Holders.

mittee at No. 3551 Olive street Wednesday vening it was unanimously resolved to estain the action taken by the Board of Education Tuesday, to compel the State Board of Equalization to tax franchises to their full values. It was decided also to employ legal counsel to represent the Equal Tazation Committee in its co-operation with the Board of Education.

Judge R. E. Rombauer, attorney for the Board of Education, will consult with Mayor Wells and City Counsel'r Schuu-macher within a day or two, to determine macher within a day or two, to determine whether the city will co-operate with the Board of Education in its endeavor to compel the State Board of Equalization to tax the franchises to their full values. It is the desire of Judge Rombauer and the School Board members to begin joint action by the city and board against the Board of Equalization.

If the city should refuse, on the advice of the City Counselor, to take joint action, the Finance Committee will authorize Judge Rombauer to begin mandamus proceedings at once against the State Board of Equalization.

No legal steps will be taken until attace.

No legal steps will be taken until after the conference between Judge Rombauer and the city's representative, and until the City Counselor files his opinion.

of the Circuit Court, in making a temporary order yesterday, in the injunction against Journeymen Steam Fitters' Local Unions Nos. 29 and 33, the Building Trades' Council of St. Louis, and others, to prevent nterference with his men, declined to folow the ruling of United States Judge Robisant of Chicago, and enjoin strikers Chase stated that steam fitters employed by him on the Morto-Catlin bullding, on Washington avenue between Eleventh and Tweffile streets, struck on November 1 last because he would not grant an increase of 25 per cent in their wages. He could not grant the increase, he stated, because the figure at which he took the contract would not permit of it. He averred that he was assaulted and that men who took the strik-

KOHLSAAT'S RULING,

Judge Talty Issues a Modified Restraining Order Against the Striking Steam Fitters.

Judge John A. Valty of Division No. 7

Judge Talty set the matter for hearing next Tuesday at le a. m., when it will be determined whether an injunction will be granted. The Judge included in the order made yesterday that in the meantime the defendants are not to interfere with Chase or his men in performing the work on the building. ers' places were intimidated.

or his men in performing that the defend-building.

Chase's petition prayed that the defend-ants be restrained from picketing his place of business and from stationing any person or persons in the neighborhood, and from intercepting his men on their way going to or from their respective homes, as was done by Judge Kohlsaat in Chicago recently, but Judge Talty refused to make this order.

TRIBUTE TO A DEAD PASTOR.

Services Held in Memory of

In the dainty French dress illustrated with poler de Paris lace and insertion.

The front and back are tucked in four clusters of three tucks each, and arranged at the lower edge of the round yoke, which is of lace. The tucks are stitched down to form a long-waisted, tight-fitting body effect. The stitching ceases several inches from the bottom, and the fullness flares stylishiy in a short skirt.

Two rows of insertion are applied around the skirt at the head of the flounce. The dress closes in the back with pearl buttons. A lace collar completes the neck.

The bertha is applied at the edge of the yoke and extends out over the shoulders in a becoming manner.

The sleeves are tucked to correspond with the body. A narrow wristband of lace completes the small puff at the hand.

To make the dress for a child 2 years old will require three and a half vards of thirty-six-inch material. The pattern, No. 846, is cut in sizes for children 1, 2, 4 and 6 years.

Father Hoeynck.

Services Held in Memory of Eather Hoeynck.

As a tribute to the memory of the late Father Engelbert Hoeynck, a former pastor of St. Liborious's Catholic Church, corner of Hugan and North Market streets, who died at Ealve, Westfalan, Germany, November 4, regular funeral services were held at the church yesterday morning over an empty catafalque with mourners present restricts were the first of the sort combined. The services were the first of the sort combined the services were the first of the sort combined to the church was thought the body was to be entombled. The services were the first of the sort combined the catholic churchs in St. Louis and vicinity were present as though the body was to be entombled. For the church of the Carbolic churchs in St. Louis and vicinity were present as though the body was celebrant, assisted by father Gabell of St. Peters, 250, and Father Stanowsk

Ann's Church acted as master of ceremonites.

Father Hoeynck was associated with St. Liborious's Church for twenty-six years, and was one of the most beloved pasters of the city. He was actively engaged in the work of the parish until 1835, when ill-health compelled him to resign. After a short stay in the city, he left for a tour of Europe in hope that the change of scene would restore his health. In this he was disappointed. He contracted consumption, and, realizing that he had but a short time to live, he went to Germany and spent his last days in the little town of Baive, his birthplace.

PUT BULLET INTO HIS BRAIN. Henry Hartmann Was Despondent

Because He Was Unemployed. While his wife was preparing breakfast at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, in an adjoining room, lenry Hartmann, 53 years old, a stonemason, fired a bullet into his old, a stonemason, fired a buildt into his brain, in the sitting-room of his home, No. 2515 North Threenth street. His wife, hearing the report of the revolver, rushed into the room and found him sitting, unconscious, in a rocking chair, holding the smeking pistel in his left hand. Just before committing the rush act he called his Hyear-old son, Henry, into the room and gave him the watch he was wearing.

Hartmann was removed to the City Hospital in an unconscious condition, where he died at 9 o'clock last night. Hartmann had been out of work for five months, and it is supposed became despondent over his flifortune.

A Medicine for Old People.

Rev. Geo. Gay, Greenwich, Kas., is past 83 years of age, yet he says: "I am enjoying excellent health for a man of my age, due entirely to the rejuvenating influences of Dr. Miles' Nervine. It brings sleep and rest when nothing else will, and gives strength and vitality even to one of my old age."

"I am an old soldier," writes Mr. Geo. Watson, of Newton, Ia., "and I have been a great sufferer from nervousness, vertigo and spinal trouble. Have spent considerable money for medicine and doctors, but with little benefit. I was so had my mind showed signs of weakness. I begantaking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I know it saved my lite."

Dr. Nervine

Saved me from the insane asylum," Mrs. A. M. Heifner, of Jerico Springs, Mo., writes. "I was so nervous that I could scarcely control myself, could not sleep nor rest, would even forget the names of my own children at times. I commenced using Dr. Miles' Nervine and it helped me from the first, and now I am perfectly well."
